THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Pope Benedict XVI encouraged the faithful to be close to their priests, remembering that God chooses to sanctify the world through them. "It is Christ himself who makes us saints, namely, who attracts us to the sphere of God," the Pope said at a general audience. "But as an act of his infinite mercy he calls some to 'be' with him and to be converted, through the sacrament of holy orders, despite human poverty, into participants in his own priesthood, ministers of this sanctification, dispensers of his mysteries, 'bridges' of the encounter with him."

Celebrating the installation of a new pastor provides an opportunity for both priest and parishioner to appreciate the gifts of the Spirit given to the entire People of God. Today's Gospel helps us to focus on the treasures we have received as individuals and as a parish. The ultimate treasure for a Christian is not in things, no matter how exquisite, rare, or collectible. Pope Benedict comments that our lasting treasure is contained within the holy; that is, those actions and persons that provide a glimpse into Divine Mystery.

The Old Testament today presents another perspective on this reality. "Vanity of vanities...all is vanity" is a poor translation of the original text. The Sacred Writer wrote, "Wind of winds".....that in the face of eternity, the things of the world are as a short puff of air. All Christians are to live in the world, but be absorbed by the world. As your newly installed pastor, my privilege and responsibility is to point and lead the way to the holy. Pray for me as I celebrate the Sacraments, visit and comfort the sick and the dying, educate the young and not so young, and especially to be a priest/servant to all of you, the faithful of St. Sebastian Parish.

Have a blessed week.
Msgr. Darcy
