THE PASTOR'S CORNER

“So, what’s new?” A common question for family and friends when we catch up on each others lives. When we listen to the news, it can either excite us, or it makes us realize how just how much life is passing by.

I can only imagine what Peter, James, and John were thinking when they saw what’s new for Jesus in today’s Gospel. They were privileged to have a glimpse of future glory. ‘Let’s camp out (literally!) and stay here.’ ‘No,’ Jesus tells them.... ‘there is much work to do.’

Parish ministry is like this. There’s much to do: parishioners to meet, Masses and worship to lead, charities to be coordinated, religious education to be enhanced, and last, but certainly not least, examining our parish finances and planning for the future. There’s much to do; we see glimpses of where w’ere going, and we will get there... together.

When preparing for a vacation or a trip, we are in control of the destination. But spiritual writers note that on the Christian journey, we do not have this control. The believer (including Abram of the Old Testament) slowly learns to surrender and to trust. To do so, we must “listen and trust Him” and then follow his lead.

So, what is new? Lent provides the forum for us to answer the question. More intense prayer, more self-restraint, and more genuine charity are the legs of our three-legged Lenten seat. And at the end of these 40 days, just who will WE be?

Enjoy the SPRING!!
