THE PASTOR'S CORNER

When was the last time you went looking for something? A lost cell phone, car keys, tax information for the accountant... Think of the anxiety and fear of discovering that your child or adult parent has wandered off unexpectedly. We go into panic mode very quickly until we find them. And what rejoicing when we do!

The magi from the East, search for a new king, and arrive at Jerusalem, home of King Herod. As you can imagine, he was not pleased to hear of any threat to his power. He had killed his wife, Mariame, and had his sons, Aristobulus and Alexandros strangled so insanely mad was he with power. His ruse for the magi to "go and search diligently for the child..." was not out of a desire to find and rejoice, but a mission to seek and to destroy.

Interesting...from the beginning, there are two responses to the manifestation of Jesus as King. Those who plot to destroy (Herod) and those who come to worship (Magi). Today's story is really our own: we choose to walk by the light (First Reading) and accept the revelation (Second Reading). We choose to follow and live in the Light, the Light which no darkness can ever overpower (John 1:5), and to worship the new-born King.

Our homes remain lit, the magi arrive at our mangers, and we continue to revel in the wonder of Emmanuel, "God with us." Amid the darkness of winter, our faith shines forth. Share it well with one another. I pray that your own active Catholic faith continues to lead others home to Christ.

Our prayer and gatherings as a parish are leading up to the Celebration of St. Sebastian Day with our pot luck supper on January 18th. Join us in the light...and invite a parishioner (or a seeker) to join you.

To all of you, a Blessed Epiphany!
Msgr. Darcy

Our Lady's Candle is lit this week in memory of Mae Badeau, requested by her daughter Belle Calenda.

AN EPIPHANY HOUSE BLESSING

(All make the Sign of the Cross.)

Head of Household: Peace be to this house and to all who dwell here, in the name of the Lord.

All: Blessed be God forever.

Reader: In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be.... And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. (John 1:1-3.14)

(Using chalk, write on wall above the main door:)
