PARISH BOOK CLUB SUMMER READING

The Parish Book Club has adjourned for the summer months. Our summer reading is Bring Up the Bodies by Hilary Mantel. Enjoy your reading!

THE PASTOR'S CORNER

The question is asked eventually in collegiate seminars, by people in the press, and by our family and friends: "But...what do you think; what do you say?" I was recently at a gathering and was getting some 'push back' on some weighty Church teachings and/or discipline. I politely responded that our Christian life is not rooted in how we feel about Jesus and the Church; I wanted to know what truth they knew of Him, the history of the issues, and the impact on the authentic defined teaching of the Church. Faith is not based on feelings!

Jesus did ask the Apostles what others were saying about him. He then asked them: "Who do you say that I am?" The account in Matthew sets up the teaching on the Primacy of Peter (e.g. "no mere man has told you this...I declare that you are Peter and on this rock I shall build my Church...") (Matt. 16:18). So then, why the rebuke of Jesus toward Peter? If Peter answered correctly, why then the put down?

Commentators mention that the perception of the Apostles about the Messiah at this point was very incomplete. Expectations were high for a Messiah who would be a political liberator. The correct appreciation of the Messiah (the Anointed One) is apparent to us. This Lucan version omits Peter's reaction to Jesus' announcement of his suffering which then leads up to the rebuke. Luke's presentation always concentrates on his major theme throughout the Gospel: the qualities of being a true disciple. One writer opines that there is a resemblance here to the Emmaus story (Lk. 24: 19-26); what people said about Jesus, their dashed hopes that Jesus would set them free, and then Jesus teaching them that the Messiah had to suffer, die and rise....whereupon they recognized Him!

Like everything in the Gospels, the gift and the time for our radical response to Jesus has now come to us. As we attempt to present Jesus to the world today, do we find Him merely in the warm nice feelings; or the raw reality that following Him will mean rejection, death...AND then new life.

Enjoy the journey...with Him.

COULD YOU ASSIST AS A SERVER AT MASS?

We are in need of servers at weekend Mass. I do want to thank our faithful servers who you see nearly every week. I encourage parents to speak to their children about serving at the altar. With my scheduled sabbatical in August, I would like the visiting priests to have the ordinary assistance of servers at the weekend Mass. Adults, married couples, father/son, mother/daughters are welcome to the ministry. The two (just two) training sessions will be coordinated. If you are interested in assisting, please call the rectory this week. Thanks to those who responded!
