MY DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Last weekend was great! A number of different events were happening in the parish and they all occurred with any glitches. I am particularly grateful for the pancake breakfast following the 9:00 am Mass. Ms. Marie Brito and the religious education program did a great job. Ms. Marie involved both parents and students and the end result was amazing. The food was delicious, the hall was transformed into a cafe and most important we came together as a parish family.

To continue to build on last Sunday's Pancake Breakfast, this Sunday after the 9 am Mass, Grace and her committee have organized another social. I am grateful to the owner (Ghassan D'Aou) of L'Artisan Cafe in Wayland Square who are our parishioners and donated the food for this Sunday's (11 Oct.) event. I know the youngsters of the parish will enjoy our surprise for them. I hope we are able to get them into Church for Mass once they see what is outside the Church!

These events build community. So, to this end, the parish hopes to have one event a month. Some events will be for the entire family, some events will be just for adults, some events will be just for the youth of the parish. But I pray we will keep this ball rolling and get more parishioners involved. Nothing is planned for November yet. So if you have any ideas just call. In December I will be inviting all parishioners to come to the rectory for eggnog and cookies. No date has been set but it will be after the rectory is decorated. So thank you to everyone and stay tuned for more information.....

Dr. Donald G. Rohr

One month ago St. Sebastian Parish received a check in the amount of $50,000 from the estate of Professor Donald Rohr. His daughters, Kristin Rohr and Karen Blaker, generously sent the monies to St. Sebastian Church "to thank Saint Sebastian's Church for all it meant to our parents." Both Professor Rohr's daughters received their First Holy Communion and Confirmation at St. Sebastian.

I want to acknowledge this gift and to publicly and sincerely thank Professor Rohr's Family.

CATHOLIC WORLD MISSIONS. By Baptism, all Catholics are called to participate in the mission of the Church and share their faith as missionaries.
