THE PASTOR'S CORNER

It's official: we are now within the Centennial Year of St. Sebastian Parish. You'll note some subtle reminders: the front of the weekly bulletin, the inside masthead of the same, and (for first class mail) the blue/gold foil centennial anniversary stickers. It should be a great year!

Interestingly, today's Gospel is about finances and responsibilities: Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." Believe me, there was no intentional decision for the financial report to be given this week. I was away at this time last year, so there are figures for the last two fiscal years. My additional comments will be shared with you during the Mass. As you see: there is good news and not so good news! Some comments need to be made about both aspects of parish life. I will be consulting with the Finance Council regarding a possible direct mail follow-up and outreach to those whose participation and support of the parish appears minimal.

For all of you who attend and contribute to the support of the parish; the Trustees, Auditors and Finance Council sincerely appreciate your active concerns for the spiritual and financial survival of the parish. Our parish was received as a gift of faith and service from parents and grandparents. Now, it's our turn. Unfortunately, I will address some who are present and some parishioners who are not, not to make them feel uncomfortable or guilty, but to share with them the realities of a parish and a diocese, which are both at a major crossroad in our Catholic diocesan history. All of us will be impacted in the years ahead: laity and clergy.

We walk faithfully together into this Centennial Year. I will continue to work tirelessly as your pastor and to invite more people to our parish. I know you join me in this noble challenge.

With much gratitude and thanks,
~ Monsignor Darcy

Our Lady's Candle burns this week as a wedding anniversary remembrance for Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lawlor, requested by their daughters, Patricia and Regina.

You can reserve the Our Lady's Candle by calling the rectory. Your intentions can be in thanksgiving, in memoriam, or for your private intention.

OUTREACH MINISTRIES OPPORTUNITIES

You'll notice in the front vestibule a large Outreach Ministries information board. Karen McCann and Karin Schrott have spearheaded offering our parish ministries to everyone. There are contact people who will be able to answer some questions you may have about these many areas of service in the parish. Our hope is that EVERYONE will get involved with something... such as collecting, baby sitting, liturgical ministries, religious education, prayer shawls, choir... etc. Take a look, call the contact; AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE!
