Is That All?

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. Matthew 22:37-38

I have always thought that Christ's demand that we love our enemies was the hardest requirement of our faith, but now I'm not so sure. The more I think of it, the more I try it, I find that loving God with my whole self seems nearly impossible. Everywhere I look I see limits to the ways I love God. To be honest, whole parts of my day go by without much consideration of God at all. Does that mean I can't abide by this first and greatest commandment?

In this kind of dilemma, my only hope is the Holy Spirit, drawing me into greater love from moment to moment. Yes, I can and do resist sometimes, but the Spirit never quits. The Holy Spirit never quits on any of us, and not a day goes by that we are not invited to give a little more love from our heart, our soul, our mind.

Lord, may I respond more deeply and love you more freely every day.

Mark Neilsen

PARISH OFFICE HOURS DURING VACATION

Msgr. Darcy will be on vacation until October 30, returning just in time for Halloween! When he's yodeling opening the front door for "Trick or Treat," you'll understand where he's been! Mary Brennan will be at the parish office from 9 am - 4 pm Monday to Friday during this time. Did you know there is such a place as "Heidiland?"

St. Sebastian Book Club will meet in the Fr. Randall Room on Wednesday, November 12th at 7:00 pm to discuss The Marble Faun by Nathaniel Hawthorne. All are welcome!

Little Sisters of the Poor
Annual Christmas Bazaar, Saturday November 22
 10 am - 4 pm

Hundreds of Hand-made Items
 Activities and so much more.

We will also be holding our annual Turkey Drop on the day of the bazaar! Please consider donating a Thanksgiving turkey to our Home for our Residents.

God Bless You!

OUTREACH MINISTRIES OPPORTUNITIES

You'll notice in the front vestibule a large Outreach Ministries information board. Karen McCann and Karin Schrott have spearheaded offering our parish ministries to everyone. There are contact people who will be able to answer some questions you may have about these many areas of service in the parish.

Our hope is that EVERYONE will get involved with something... such as collecting, baby sitting, liturgical ministries, religious education, prayer shawls, choir... etc. Take a look, call the contact; AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

NOVEMBER: THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

We remember our faithful departed during the month of November. As the earth prepares for the sleep of winter, so our loved ones sleep awaiting the Resurrection. Families and friends have been invited to the 11 am Mass on Sunday, November 2nd as the parish remembers all those buried from the parish Church this past year.

You may use the All Soul's Remembrance Envelope to list the names of those who will be remembered all through November. Their names will be in repose under the icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. You can return them in the regular Offertory collection basket.
