My dear parishioners,

There are so many things happening in our parish. But before I list future social activities, I want to thank those who worked last Saturday and Sunday to make our Annual Pancake Breakfast such a success. Marie Brito did an outstanding job in pulling the entire event together. Thank you to all who setup, cooked, served, and then broke down the Church Hall.

I also want to thank the two families who donated the beautiful plants which adorn our Church. Many people remarked about the dignity those plants added to our Church.

We are planning our next Parish Social Event. On Sunday October 22nd at 7:30 pm we are planning a Football Social at St. Sebastian's Church Hall. Pre-game activities will start at 7:30 pm. The football game is between the Super Bowl Champions New England Patriots and the Atlanta Falcons.

Football trivia and a raffle are on the agenda. There is a sign-up sheet that will help us to prepare for the number of people we hope will attend.

To recap:

WHEN: Sunday October 22nd at 7:30 pm to halftime (approximately 10:00 pm). We are planning to move to McBride's Pub in Wayland Square for the second half.

WHERE: St. Sebastian's Church Hall

WHO: Parishioners and Friends

ATTIRE: Your favorite Patriots gear

BABYSITTING: None

Food and Beverages will be provided free of charge.

Please plan to attend,

-- Monsignor Montecalvo

The Pancake Breakfast last weekend was a huge success:

To the CCD families who donated the food and drinks for the breakfast, to those who helped set up the church hall on Saturday, to the special "team" who prepared the meal, to the great CCD servers and to the great helpers on cleanup, I extend my heartfelt THANK YOU! Great job everyone! ---Ms. Marie

St. Mary Academy - Bay View invites you to Open House for the Upper School on Sunday October 29th at noon, and on November 19th for Upper School and Middle School at noon. ST. SEBASTIAN'S BOOK CLUB

The St. Sebastian Book Club meets monthly from September through May on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 pm in the Father Randall Room. We generally discuss classical novels and some contemporary literary fiction. New members are always welcome as are interested readers who might like to drop in for any discussion.

On the 25th of October the book that will be discussed is The House of Mirth by Edith Wharton.
