THE PASTOR'S CORNER

September does have a way of getting us back to normal. School is in session, religious education has begun, and parish life gets busier again.

Our parish catechists will be installed today at the 9 AM Mass. Children Liturgies will begin very soon at that same Mass time. On behalf of the entire parish, we thank our catechists and Miss Marie Brito, our Director for Religious Education, for their dedication to this ministry in the parish.

I have shared with the Finance Council the five contract proposals for the desperately needed exterior roof and other repairs for the rectory. Deferred maintenance has caught up with us, and we must address the repairs before more extensive and dangerous deterioration escalates. We've done very well in defining the scope of the work to repair the rectory. A final pre-contract discussion will clarify our requirements for this important project. When all diocesan parish corporation requirements are fulfilled, the project will commence. More details will be presented next week.

As mentioned at the very successful Wine Tasting Evening, save Saturday, October 15th for Oktoberfest. Details elsewhere in this bulletin. We enter the Fall season and celebrate our parish life, the fruits of the earth, and the blessing we have received.

This weekend we welcome Fr. Dan Trainor, a Senior Priest and former Pastor of the Assumption Parish, Providence. Fr. Dan will be sharing with us his reflections of 50 years of priestly ministry. I ask for your generous support for the 90 Senior Priests who have served the Church so faithfully. The second collection today is for the Priest Retirement Fund in the Diocese of Providence. Welcome, Fr. Dan, and thank you for your priestly life and friendship over the years.

Enjoy this wonderful time of year!
Msgr. Darcy

PLEASE KEEP OUR FELLOW PARISHIONERS AND FRIENDS IN YOUR THOUGHTS AND PRAYERS; ESPECIALLY

Maureen Baker, and Betty Mullaney

Please contact the rectory if you would like to add a person to our prayers. Prayers for the sick will be continued for an entire month. Please call the rectory if additional prayers are requested..
