11:00 am For Parishioners Who Were Buried from Saint Sebastian's During the Past Year

NOVEMBER: THE MONTH OF ALL SOULS

We remember our faithful departed during the month of November. As the earth prepares for the sleep of winter, so our loved ones sleep awaiting the Resurrection. Families and friends have been invited to the 11:00 am Mass on Sunday, November 4th as the parish remembers all those buried from the parish Church this past year.

You may use the All Soul's Remembrance Envelope to list the names of those who will be remembered all through November. Their names will be in repose under the icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. You can return them in the regular Offertory basket.

Pastor's Corner

The initial response to the increased Offertory Campaign was in a word, 'humbling.' In the midst of our family and personal financial obligations, the need to reassess our involvement and support of the parish is very important. It can't be left to any one group in the parish; it's OUR parish and it can only survive because of our response. Some sobering facts need also be shared. Perhaps as many as ten priests may retire next year. We hope to ordain two deacons as priests with one newly ordained priest is returning from his fifth year of theology. Discussions in pastoral planning and priest personnel are underway for alternative staffing of parishes. Bishop Tobin has written in his own weekly column that some parishes will be merged, and some in desperate financial and demographic decline would be closed. ("The Case of the Disappearing Priests," 5/24/12)

These are the realities of parishes and vocations today. We have begun to chart a new course for the parish, to strengthen it spiritually, to invite others to pray with us, and to consider prayerfully our sacrifice to help the parish survive for our grandchildren.

A parishioner actually made this comment to me: "We haven't decided whether or not just to ignore your letter." So that everyone knows how a professionally prepared campaign is run, each response card is bar coded and has a hologram on it. I completed and returned my card last Sunday. The envelopes are mailed to and scanned by the consultant, Letter Concepts. A thank you letter is sent promptly to a responsive parishioner thus ending further appeals. Unresponsive parishioners are contacted twice more before the campaign ends (early December). A final report is forwarded to the pastor and shared with the Finance Council. In summary: the case is made, a request is asked, a response is given (or 'ignored'), a thank you is received, and the parish is strengthened and survives. Our personal and family response is an important factor to the over-arching realities of the first paragraph above.

I will be inviting our new parishioners to a "Meet and Greet" at the rectory in a few weeks... no agenda, just a chance to meet them in an informal setting. Basically, being a pastor is all about "face time." Some have indicated their willingness to get involved. That will be great! The more the merrier, so invite friends to join us at St. Sebastian's!

Fr. Chris Maher, the Rector of our seminary, will be with you this weekend as I celebrate a wedding in NYC. See you next week... and spread the faith!
